For the 5th edition of the Taste Festival, forty Chefs and nearly 30,000 visitors are expected in the sublime nave of the Grand Palais for 4 days of tasting and gluttony.-----

Taste of Paris is not an ordinary festival, in the sense that it only opens at meal times. We come here for lunch from 11.30 am to 4 pm, or dinner from 7 pm to 11.30 pm. We lick their chops on the various stands of the great restaurants that carry their kitchens for a few extraordinary days.-----

Here, the idea is not to sit at a table to enjoy the cuisine of an excellent chef (as well as go to his own restaurant), but to peck small formats to the right and left to discover the whole potential of Parisian chefs. You can taste 3 to 4 dishes representative of the cuisine of each cordon bleu and discover the "Secrets of Chefs" during interactive cooking classes, presented every day. Be aware that it is possible to reserve a VIP table for an exceptional meal. In the magical setting of the Grand Palais, one can savor the best of the French cooks during a meal served at the table, on the rotunda. The opportunity also to meet the chefs and leave with a gift. A unique moment to live in Paris!
